» Our purpose is to provide the information you need to select the best fairs for exhibiting your business.

Trade fairs and shows are and have been the heartbeat of the antiques, vintage, and design industries—essential for sourcing, selling, and staying ahead of trends. Vintage and antiques events have never been more important. Demand for these items continues to rise, fueled by interior designers, Millennials, and Gen Z buyers. These consumers are increasingly seeking sustainability, uniqueness, and craftsmanship.

We're thrilled to present the latest Guide to Trade Fairs and Shows For Sellers of Art, Vintage and Antiques, brought to you in partnership with THDxANF—an exciting new collaboration between Antiques News & Fairs and The House Directory. These two industry-leading platforms have united to connect the worlds of antiques and interior design, each maintaining its unique voice.

Our combined goal is simple yet powerful: to help you find the right fairs, connect with qualified buyers, and grow your business in today's competitive market.

Wishing you a prosperous year ahead.

With joy,

Trade Fairs and Shows For Sellers of Art, Vintage and Antiques

GAIL MCLEOD
EDITOR
ANTIQUES NEWS & FAIRS

ANGEL TAN
CEO
THE HOUSE DIRECTORY

The UK calendar has seen some major changes and corrections over the past six months, but the trade is populated by inventive entrepreneurs who always look to the future.

Glamorous interior design events are increasing across the capital and regions, providing scope for buyers to enjoy a century mashup mixing antiques with one-off pieces of 21st century craftsmanship.

THD and ANF are proud to partner with Ronati to provide up-to-date dynamic data for this guide, an essential resource for the antique, vintage, and design industries. This is an exciting year for Ronati with the launch of an impressive cache of products which will help our audience be successful in a rapidly changing industry.

We're delighted to announce that Antiques News & Fairs (ANF) has officially joined The House Directory (THD), bringing together two leading platforms where antiques meet interior design.

As part of this exciting collaboration, ANF's renowned Fairs Calendar is now fully integrated into The House Directory, offering a comprehensive guide to UK, EU and USA antiques fairs, alongside a curated selection of interior design and garden events.

A Perfect Partnership

With over 16 years as a trusted antiques resource, ANF, led by Gail McLeod, is known for its industry expertise and global connections. Partnering with Angel Tan, CEO of The House Directory, a leading resource for the design industry for over 20 years, this new chapter expands opportunities for fair organisers dealers, collectors, and design professionals.

Founded in 2017, Fresh is Britain’s biggest provincial art fair. The fair is widely regarded as a competitor to the major London fairs. There are three key benefits to exhibitors: first, no upper limit on art pricing, second, fewer exhibitors therefore less competition for visitor spend, and third, more generous stand charges. Hosting an average of fifty leading galleries showing 6,000 works by 600 artists, our venue is a purpose-built exhibition centre with world-class facilities and unlimited free parking. At the gateway to the Cotswolds, Cheltenham reaches a highly affluent community embracing Birmingham, Oxford, Bath, Bristol, Cardiff, Worcester, and Gloucester.

FROCK ME! VINTAGE FASHION FAIR

Frock Me! Vintage Fair was established in the late 1990s, and exhibitors come from across the UK. There are over sixty exhibitors at the Chelsea Old Town Hall fairs, and over 100 at the Kensington Town Hall fairs, which also include a jewellery fair on the upper floor. Many have formerly been costume designers for film and TV or have a background in fashion design. Each has their own specialism, for example: fashion from the 1920s, 1970s labels such as Ossie Clark and Biba, French textiles and popular vintage designer labels such as Chanel.

For more than 150 years, shoppers from across Northeast Texas and beyond have been coming to the Original First Monday Trade Days in Canton. In the early days, they traveled to Canton to trade horses, livestock, dogs, tools and farm equipment, and to sell homemade items and produce. More than a century later, antiques and collectibles, furniture and home decor, arts and crafts, jewelry and vintage clothing are among the more sought-after items. Many marvel at the thousands of shoppers who continue to make the trek to Canton month after month. They say it's the First Monday experience that keeps them coming back.

Located in South West London, nestled in the grounds of the famous Kempton Park Racecourse, is Europe’s premier antiques market. This family-run business of nearly forty years standing is the largest and longest-running twice-monthly antiques market in the country, attracting well over 700 traders from all over Europe and exhibiting a vast range of antique, vintage, and retro goods. No matter what you’re looking for, somebody at Sunbury Antiques Market will be selling it!

It's over 40 years since our very first Sunbury Antiques Market at Kempton Park Racecourse took place and thanks to the dedication, enthusiasm and vision of our founder, the late Sue Cruttenden, we've gone from strength to strength.

From modest beginnings, this family run business has organically evolved into the largest and longest running twice-monthly market in the country and we are immensely proud to be recognised as one of Europe's premier antiques markets.

Now and in conjunction with the hugely popular bi-monthly events 'Sunbury Antiques Market at Kempton Park', our team have expanded operations to include 'Sandown Antiques Home & Interiors Fairs' at Sandown Park Racecourse – another outstanding location within the M25 with excellent road and rail links, and direct trains from London Waterloo, Clapham Junction and Woking.
