» The world of vintage, antiques, and one-of-a-kind goods still lives largely offline. Trade fairs remain the heartbeat of this industry — central to discovery, connection, and commerce.

As technology and AI evolve at an extraordinary speed, one thing remains unchanged: the world of vintage, antiques, and one-of-a-kind goods still lives largely offline. While search tools multiply and information accelerates, depth and clarity have not yet kept pace.

Choice overload, fragmented or outdated listings, and endless search results often make it harder, not easier, to find the right fairs, dealers, and opportunities.

This disconnect is felt most acutely by a new generation of buyers and sellers. Millennials and Gen Z are embracing vintage, craftsmanship, sustainability, and uniqueness, yet navigating the physical trade fair landscape can feel opaque without clear guidance.

Even seasoned dealers face an increasingly noisy environment when deciding where to invest their time, inventory, and energy.

Trade fairs remain the heartbeat of this industry, but today they still need translation, structure, and visibility.

This is why we're proud to collaborate once again with THDxANF on this year's Guide to Trade Fairs and Shows. ANF has been a trusted resource for the trade for more than 16 years, and THD for 20.

Together, we aim to demystify the trade show and fairs landscape, support dealers and organizers, and bring it all together in this year's guide.

Here's to a fantastic 2026!

Trade Fairs and Shows For Sellers of Art, Vintage and Antiques

GAIL MCLEOD
EDITOR
ANTIQUES NEWS & FAIRS

ANGEL TAN
CEO
THE HOUSE DIRECTORY

THDxANF are working to introduce new features for our clients in the UK, EU and USA including regular focus features on our recommended events, event exhibitor profiles and itinerary suggestions for buyers.

The UK fairs and events landscape will see some major changes in 2026 as we adapt to the way our industry manages information available using AI.

A Perfect Partnership

With over 16 years as a trusted antiques resource, ANF, led by Gail McLeod, is known for its industry expertise and global connections.

Partnering with Angel Tan, CEO of The House Directory, a leading design industry resource for over 20 years, this new chapter expands opportunities for fair organisers, dealers, collectors, and design professionals.

The essence of this collaboration is: antiques meet interior design. We made use of all available resources for the 2026 edition of ANF's renowned Fairs Calendar, and we are proud to partner with Ronati to provide dynamic data for the Ronati Guide to Trade Fairs & Shows, an essential resource for the antique, vintage, and design industries.

The launch of new products in 2026 will keep Ronati at the centre of the rapidly changing industry, and THDxANF look forward to developing our collaboration with this exciting brand.

OPENING TIMES

Opening times for our next edition will be announced closer to the time.

www.freshartfair.net

@freshartfair

Founded in 2017, Fresh is Britain’s biggest provincial art fair. The fair is widely regarded as a competitor to the major London fairs. There are three key benefits to exhibitors: first, no upper limit on art pricing, second, fewer exhibitors therefore less competition for visitor spend, and third, more generous stand charges. Hosting an average of fifty leading galleries showing 6,000 works by 600 artists, our venue is a purpose-built exhibition centre with world-class facilities and unlimited free parking. At the gateway to the Cotswolds, Cheltenham reaches a highly affluent community embracing Birmingham, Oxford, Bath, Bristol, Cardiff, Worcester, and Gloucester.

FROCK ME! VINTAGE FASHION FAIR

Frock Me! Vintage Fair was established in the late 1990s, and exhibitors come from across the UK. There are over sixty exhibitors at the Chelsea Old Town Hall fairs, and over 100 at the Kensington Town Hall fairs, which also include a jewellery fair on the upper floor. Many have formerly been costume designers for film and TV or have a background in fashion design. Each has their own specialism, for example: fashion from the 1920s, 1970s labels such as Ossie Clark and Biba, French textiles and popular vintage designer labels such as Chanel.

For more than 150 years, shoppers from across Northeast Texas and beyond have been coming to the Original First Monday Trade Days in Canton. In the early days, they traveled to Canton to trade horses, livestock, dogs, tools and farm equipment, and to sell homemade items and produce. More than a century later, antiques and collectibles, furniture and home decor, arts and crafts, jewelry and vintage clothing are among the more sought-after items. Many marvel at the thousands of shoppers who continue to make the trek to Canton month after month. They say it's the First Monday experience that keeps them coming back.

It's over 40 years since our very first Sunbury Antiques Market at Kempton Park Racecourse took place and thanks to the dedication, enthusiasm and vision of our founder, the late Sue Cruttenden, we've gone from strength to strength.

From modest beginnings, this family run business has organically evolved into the largest and longest running twice-monthly market in the country and we are immensely proud to be recognised as one of Europe's premier antiques markets.

Now and in conjunction with the hugely popular bi-monthly events 'Sunbury Antiques Market at Kempton Park', our team have expanded operations to include 'Sandown Antiques Home & Interiors Fairs' at Sandown Park Racecourse – another outstanding location within the M25 with excellent road and rail links, and direct trains from London Waterloo, Clapham Junction and Woking.
